—We would call the attention of the town authorities to two needed improvements in town. One is the bridge near the postoffice, at the corner of Mr. C. P. Johnson's lot. It is entirely too narrow for two; and there is a mud hole in front of the Murphy house which is very disagreeable. The change should be made before next week, when there will be a large crowd here.

The Fife Meeting.
The religious union service by the "Drummer Evangelist," W. P. Fife will begin next Sunday, 13th inst. The large tent with a seating capacity of 1500 to 2000 will be put up this week in the vacant lot back of Dr. Lee's Drug Store. This week every night at the Presbyterian church. The choir for this meeting will practice every night after prayer meeting. The Pittsylvania Tribune of Chatham Va., where Mr. Fife is now preaching says, "Chatham has never witnessed such far reaching and glorious revival of religion as the one through which we have just passed. When Mr. Fife began he had two things to contend with, a protracted season of rainy weather and some opposition on the part of some. The first difficult remained, but the latter entirely disappeared before the end. His earnestness was intense. His knowledge of the Bible wonderful, his exposition of the Scripture was plain, direct and to the point, and his prayers were from the heart. Every one was impressed with his consecration. His methods were fair and very simple. During the meeting some 175 persons made open profession. The town was thoroughly aroused. Business was practically suspended and religion the subject of conversation of all. There was no clap-trap, or novel means used. Great stress was placed on frequent invocations made for the Holy Spirit. The results were grand. Men, women and children were at nearly every service brought to Christ. Lawyers, merchants, farmers, the clerk of a court, a judge, a commonwealth's attorney, a county superintendent of schools, clerks, a doctor and many others made professions."

Thomson—Williams.
On last Tuesday, September 8th, at 2:30 P. M., Mr. William S. Thomson and Miss Sarah Appila Williams were married. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Colin Shaw at Oak Plane church in Taylor's Bridge township, near the residence of the bride's father, Mr. C. J. Williams. Mr. Marion Butler was the groom's best man and Miss Mary Leu Williams was bridesmaid. A large number of friends of the contracting parties were out to witness the happy event. The ceremony over, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Thomson stepped from the church into a carriage to catch the Southern bound train at Magnolia for Cordele, Georgia. Mr. Thomson, who practiced law here for several years, and was mayor of the town, is a member of the law firm of Thomson & Littlejohn at Cordele. "Miss Phil," as every one called, Miss Williams, is a most estimable lady, and Sampson regrets to lose such a charming character. THE CAUCASIAN extends its best wishes to the happy couple and its congratulations to the town of Cordele.

Cotton Mills in the State.
Mr. J. Robinson, our Commissioner of Agriculture, makes a good show up for our cotton factories. The number of cotton mill after the war was 60. In 1890 they were increased to 116, and this year there are now 134 of them in operation, being more than an average of one factory for every factory. Sampson county, one of the very largest and wealthiest of the counties has not a single mill in it, and it seems that is going to be our fix for some time. In the 3rd Congressional District, of nine counties, there are only four mills, three of them in one county, and this is one of the best cotton producing sections in the State. We make the cotton end send it off to be manufactured and some one else realizes the profits.

Swore Him on Buses' Justice.
In a recent court of a Sampson Justice of the Peace, a witness was called up to testify in a cause. The Bible lay upon a table with a number of other books, and by mistake Buses' N. C. Justice and Form Book was handed the witness upon which the oath was administered. The Justice never discovered his mistake, and the witness kissed the book with the usual reverence, and never knew but what he had been sworn upon the Bible.

Cobb—Fennell.
Married, Miss DeLisle Fennell to Rev. N. B. Cobb, of Raleigh. This very happy event took place near Harrell's Store last Thursday, the 3rd. Rev. Dr. T. H. Pritchard, of Wilmington, officiating. Miss Fennell is a daughter of the late Mr. Owen Fennell, and is one of our most popular and cultured ladies. Dr. Cobb is a very able and distinguished Baptist divine. They have the best wishes and congratulations of THE CAUCASIAN.

A Promising Young Boy.
The many friends of Mr. Wyatt DeVane, a former resident of Clinton, now of Winston, will be pleased to hear that he has left for Davidson College to take a course preparatory to enter the Presbyterian ministry. Wyatt is an exceptionally bright boy, and we predict for him a brilliant future.

A FIEND LYNCHED!

THE SPEEDY FALLING OF THE HAND OF JUSTICE.

An Ex-Convict Assaults an Aged Lady and is Swung to a Telegraph Pole.

On last Saturday evening M. C. Best, a colored ex-convict, attempted a criminal assault upon Mrs. Robert W. Peterson, who lives near Garland, in this county. The following account was obtained from the evidence given in before the Coroner's Jury:

Mrs. Peterson is past 55 years of age and was going alone to the house of her son, who lived near by, when Best approached her from behind and dealt her a severe blow on the head. She fell stunned to the ground, and notwithstanding the efforts of her assailant to choke her, screamed several times and attracted the attention of a negro woman who was not far away. This woman ran to Mrs. Peterson's assistance and recognized the frightened fiend as he ran away. The alarm was sent out and the indignant citizens of the community scoured the woods in every direction. Near daylight on the same evening Best was apprehended near Parkersburg, placed in the hands of a strong guard and confined in the warehouse of the C. F. & Y. V. Railroad. Intelligence of the dastardly deed had flashed from home to home and awake in the hearts of the usually peaceful and law-abiding citizens of the community, indignation, and a spirit of vengeance. At 11 o'clock a body of fifty masked and armed men approached the depot in which Best was confined, overpowered the guard and took their prisoner about a half mile up the Railroad. Here a beam was nailed to a telegraph pole, and Best was swung upon this beam with a small but strong cord. While dangling in the throes of death a bullet fired through his body, hastening his wretched end. He had previously been identified by Mrs. Peterson and acknowledged the crime. The body hung, observed by all passers by, until Monday evening when it was cut down by Coroner. Dr. B. H. Holliday, who proceeded to summon a jury, and held an inquest over the remains. The following named gentlemen composed the jury: J. A. Beaman, W. E. Watson, S. S. Armstrong, J. D. Johnson, J. A. McKenzie and H. H. Cromatie, who rendered a verdict that the deceased had met his death at the hands of a body of unknown men.

This is the first lynching that has occurred in Sampson county within our remembrance, and though a dangerous precedent, is justified by public sentiment, if not by law. A more fiendish deed has not been attempted in our community in many years, and citizens who have heretofore been content to let the law take its course, were wrought to such a pitch of rage that they took the law into their own hands and hastened the coming of justice. It is said Best was guilty of a similar crime in South Carolina, but escaped punishment. He bore a bad name and his countenance proclaimed him a deep-dyed villain. He merited no better fate than he met, and the manner of his death is to be deplored.

Meeting of Board of Education.
The County Board of Education was in session on Monday the 7th of Sept., and transacted a large amount of business.

Committees were appointed for the 142 school district. Messrs. A. W. Lamb, J. C. Lamb and C. T. Lamb were transferred from school district 65 white to 52 white.

Thet portion of school district No. 23 white including the places of residence of Alsey Giles, David Willford and Sion Willford was annexed to school district 55, white. A petition signed by R. H. Hubbard and others asking that the town of Clinton be made a school district for whites, was presented and placed on file to consider in Jan. 1892, and the county Supt., ordered to give the proper notice.

A petition was presented from school districts 40 and 41 colored, asking for changes in district lines. The petition was placed on file for hearing in Jan. 1892 and the county Superintendent ordered to give the proper notice.

Fire.
The kitchen to the house on Fayetteville street owned by Mr. Warren Johnson, now occupied by Mr. Hall Sykes was burned Monday night about 12 o'clock. The origin of the fire is unknown. Besides the loss of the house, Mr. Sykes had all of his provisions in the kitchen, which was lost besides all the kitchen furniture. This is the second time Mr. Sykes has been burned 02 since he has been in Clinton. The dwelling was saved only after hard work. The promptness is which the people came out and the coolness displayed is very commendable.

Death in Duplin.
It is with profound sorrow that we chronicle the death of Mr. John Middleton, which occurred at his home near Warsaw last Thursday the 3rd inst. Mr. Middleton was a young man just in the prime of life. He was a pure, honest, steady, kind and affectionate young man. He lived a consistent christian life. He had been a member of the Presbyterian church at Warsaw for some time. THE CAUCASIAN extends its sympathy to the bereaved family and friends in their sad affliction.

Another Cure for Rheumatism.
LAKES CITY, Fla., Sept. 8.—I had rheumatism for over six years, and last May was taken down and confined to my bed. My legs and feet were badly swollen and the color of a red apple, and I was in a fearful condition. I heard of P. P. P. (Tricklin Ash, Poke Root and Potassium), and after seeing what the ingredients were—as the formula is on the bottle—I concluded to try it, and after taking three small bottles was able to get down town and attend to my business, and I must say that I feel like another man. Am now taking the large size, and to-day I believe that I will soon be as likely as any man of sixty-one years of age can expect to be.
A. C. LANG.

Erysipelas.—I. L. Irvin, of Thomasville, Ga., says he was afflicted with Erysipelas for ten years and was only cured when P. P. P. was used.

Tetter, Salt Rheum and Cancer are all cured by P. P. P. The effects on these diseases are perceptible after the first bottle of P. P. P. was used.

OPIONUM.—I was afflicted with Opium for many years, and was only cured when P. P. P. was used.

Headaches and Fevers, to cleanse the system effectually, yet gently, when costive or bilious, or when the blood is impure or sluggish, to permanently cure habitual constipation, to awaken the kidneys and liver to a healthy activity, without irritating or weakening them, use Syrup of Figs.

ALL THROUGH SAMPSON.

MINGO.
Mr. Editor, as your old friend and brother, Mr. Stub, has been quiet so long, please allow me a short space in your excellent paper.

Mr. G. W. Naylor, one of Sampson's public school teachers, is teaching at McMillan's Chapel, Cumberland county.

Misses Ada Jackson and Georgia Hawley, two young and charming ladies have been spending a week at Dunn, N. C., where they seemed to be highly entertained by the young people and especially the young ladies.

Salem Items.
(Special Correspondent.)

The excessive rains which have been so prevalent for the past few weeks have been a great hindrance to the farmers in this section in gathering their fodder and have made the cotton crop less favorable than formerly.

Mr. Alvin E. Royal who for several years has been merchandising for Capt. J. L. Autry at Clement, has purchased a farm in this section very recently and will return to live in the neighborhood of his former home. We are glad to have him among us again as he will be a good addition to the community.

Miss Katie Williams and Mr. Henry W. Butler left this week to enter school. The former at LaGrange, N. C., and the latter will matriculate at the State University. There will be a musical concert in the P. N. Society Hall on Saturday night Sept. 8th. We hope a large crowd as the proceeds will be for a very laudable purpose.

Salem High School continues to increase in numbers; there were eleven additional pupils this week, the school now numbers forty seven having pupils from four counties. The prospects for the year are very fine.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Howard have gone on a visit to Mr. James Lamb near Lisbon.

A Great Success.
A very large and appreciative audience witnessed the Soiree Musical concert given by the Misses Johnson last Thursday evening in Atkin's Hall. It was a very brilliant success in every respect. The pieces rendered were among the most difficult, as well as most famous composition. Special selections from Bellini, Von Weber, Rossini, Haydn and Moszkowski were given.

The Misses Johnson are very promising musicians. They have already attained to some national reputation by their performance in Boston and other Northern cities.

Miss Minnie Johnson's performance on the Violin was exceptionally fine. Her finished and scientific touch showed complete mastery of this instrument and the most difficult pieces.

The performance was greatly enhanced by recitation of Mrs. C. P. Johnson, who is a very fine elocutionist. It gave mirth as well as pathos to the entertainment. These young ladies have just completed their musical studies in the Conservatory at Boston, and graduated with high honors. Clinton is certainly to be congratulated in having such talent. They will give entertainments at different places in the State this fall, the proceeds for the benefit of the Odd Fellow's Orphan Asylum at Goldsboro.

OFFICE ALLIANCE PUB. CO., 239 North Capitol Street, Washington, D. C., Sept. 3, 91.

(Regular Correspondent.)

The national debt has increased notwithstanding the vast sums that have been paid as principal, interest and premium. A careful and thorough analysis of the following statement and table is requested of the readers:

The national debt in 1786 amounted to $2,783,000,000. We have paid on the principal of the public debt $1,599,665,312, and as interest on same $1,400,726,049, and a further sum of $85,540,000 as premiums on bonds purchased, amounting in all to $4,198,931,361. Yet we and the debt of the nation has actually increased if paid in the labor and products of the people (any person of ordinary intelligence knows it) can not be paid in anything else; that is to say, it will take more labor products to pay what we now owe at present prices than it would have taken to pay the entire indebtedness in 1866 at the prices then. As proof of this the table below is given. In regard to its correctness, reference is called to any authentic price list of products for the years named:

INCREASE OF THE NATIONAL DEBT BY PAID IN FARM PRODUCTS
Debt in 1866, $2,783,000,000.
Products in 1866, $1,123,834,088.
Debt in 1890, $1,123,834,088.
Products in 1890, $1,123,834,088.
Debt in 1896, $1,123,834,088.
Products in 1896, $1,123,834,088.
Debt in 1900, $1,123,834,088.
Products in 1900, $1,123,834,088.
Debt in 1904, $1,123,834,088.
Products in 1904, $1,123,834,088.
Debt in 1908, $1,123,834,088.
Products in 1908, $1,123,834,088.
Debt in 1912, $1,123,834,088.
Products in 1912, $1,123,834,088.

This table clearly shows that notwithstanding the national debt has been nearly twice paid in principal and interest, the portion which yet remains is larger than the original. This statement will not hold good, when more dollars and cents are considered, but is absolutely true as regards the amounts of the products of labor that is necessary to purchase these different sums of money. Thus, had the debt been contracted to be paid in wheat it would have taken, in 1866, 1,007,000,000 bushels:

We have paid on the principal.....1,786,460,000
As interest.....2,823,328,000
As premium on bonds 62,770,000

Total paid.....4,652,558,000
We yet owe.....1,958,389,084
Had the debt been contracted to be paid in cotton it would have taken, in 1867, 7,092,000,000 pounds.

We have paid on the principal.....16,077,683,000
As interest.....25,407,260,000
premiums on bonds, 565,000,000

Total paid.....42,049,943,000
We yet owe.....11,752,316,000

When it is remembered that all private indebtedness has gone through the same process, that a mortgage which was given prior to 1872, and remains half unpaid, is larger and more burdensome than when first given; that the man who has worked hard and economized closely during all these years to pay one-half or two-thirds of his indebtedness is no better off, and in nearly every case more in debt than when he first began, measured by the remuneration received for his own efforts, is there any wonder that wide-spread distress and discontent obtain among the wealth-producers of the country?

ANOTHER EXAMPLE.

Farmer A., out in Michigan, in 1866, borrows $1,000 of Banker B., and agrees to pay 10 per cent interest for the use of it. This amounts to $100 annually. In order to obtain this $100 at that time Farmer A. had to sell either 50 bushels of wheat, 165 bushels of oats, 125 bushels of corn, 230 pounds of pork, 650 pounds of pork, or 170 pounds of wool.

In 1890 the loan is renewed at 7 per cent. The interest is now only $70 annually. In order to get this amount Farmer A. sells either 120 bushels of wheat, 400 bushels of oats, 350 bushels of corn, 540 pounds of butter, 1,400 pounds of pork, or 280 pounds of wool.

Let every farmer make a careful study of this example. A perfect solution of it will disclose the difficulty with which the people are struggling. It is a fair statement of the "power of money to oppress."

N. A. DUNNING.

MONEY POWER.

Thomas H. Benton said: "All property is at the mercy of the money power." James A. Garfield said: "Whoever controls the volume of money in any country is absolute master of all industry and commerce." These are strong sayings of able and wise men, uttered at different times before money had been crowned absolute monarch in this country. The old struggle between government and people has ceased to a great extent, only to be succeeded by a fiercer conflict between the government or people on one hand and the money power on the other. Now, if it be true that "money is absolute master of all industry and commerce," and that all property is at the "mercy of its power," it is at about the time the people become masters of money. It is a sad spectacle and a worse comment on modern statesmanship to see this creature of man exercising absolutism over its creator and making all the rest of his wants subservient to its decrees. It is unjust, un-American and iniquitous for gold, or a set of men, to control the volume of currency which, like government, should be "of the people, by the people, for the people"—the servant and not the master of a great nation.—[Farmers Alliance.]

After reading exhaustive discussions for and against the Omaha platform of the Farmers' Alliance we are convinced that that platform is the only way by which the depressed agriculturalist can find relief. That platform was constructed with crooked plank. It has stood and will continue to stand the attacks of the enemy on all sides. It was formulated by men who were thoroughly acquainted with the needs of the people and is said to be Jeffersonian Democracy. And if these measures will better the condition of the farmers of this country without infringing upon rights of other citizens it will certainly better the condition of all other branches of industry, and can by no fair means be called "class legislation" as has been so unjustly charged against the Sub-Treasury bill.—Columbus News.

Our Farmers' Column.

SOMETHING INTERESTING TO THOSE WHO TILL THE SOIL.

"There is no material progress that is well based and permanent without agricultural progress."

BLUFF ALLIANCE, NO. 577.
At a recent meeting a committee of three was appointed to correspond with the North Carolina Agricultural Experiment Station, Raleigh, N. C., and the following questions were asked and answered:

What will prevent insects destroying peach and apple trees?
Answer: For insect pests, a kerosene emulsion, one pound hard soap dissolved in one or two quarts boiling water, then one pint of kerosene, while still hot stir with a force pump until an emulsion forms, add cold water enough to make fifteen pints and spray on forcibly with force pump. This will destroy bugs and lice.

What is the best plan to preserve compost manure?
Answer: Keep a compost heap moist and covered with land plaster but always moist.

There is a troublesome weed here known as "sheepsore" or "lock-not weed," the roots grow till the soil is perfectly matted with them. What is the quickest method to entirely destroy them?
Ans: Sheepsore only grows in our land. It should be well cultivated and limed.

I forgot to state that it grows exuberantly on our old sandy fields, and can't be destroyed when the land is cultivated every second year.

W. J. CRADDOCK, Ch'n Exp. Ag. Committee.

WOMAN'S SPHERE.

DRESS.

It is every woman's duty, first to herself, second to her family, and third to society to appear neat, attractive and to an advantage in every way possible.

EARLY AUTUMN MODEL.

Traveling and rural toilets are generally made with a jacket which can be worn open or closed, and if there is a bodice as well this is usually in coat form; so that this and the skirt make a complete toilet without the jacket. A separate coat and vest does not permit the usual blouse or skirt to be worn; but small sleeveless vests with the front simulating a blouse are useful and do away with the necessity for a jacket as well.

FASHIONS ARE PLAIN THIS YEAR.

Here is an item for our lady readers sent over from Paris: "The tendency of fashions this year will be exceedingly plain. In former years it was customary to use great amounts of cloth in making a dress, nine yards of double-width goods being the usual quantity. The fashion this year is succinctly outlined by a prominent French manufacturer, who said: 'Five yards of cloth will make a dress, and two and one-half of that goes on the ground, which means that the dress is so exceedingly plain it will require but little cloth and much of that forms a train, which will be a feature of the style.'"

[New Orleans Time Democrat.]

HOW TO WEAR GRAY.

Every woman wears gray because it is fashionable, and so it behooves the woman who is a shallow blonde to know that her gray dress ought to have a rich cardinal or crimson plastron or a big, soft fichu of red chiffon.

The reddish blonde need not read this article. She can wear gray pure and simple without modification.

The brunette should take heed that her gray dress has a touch of pink or old rose near her face, or, if it becomes her better, of yellow.

No girl who is dark should ever put blue with gray.

No girl who has not a rose leaf skin should wear cream and gray.

Never wear a gray hat unless you face it with the tint that is most becoming. If you heed these hints you will probably confess them wise.—N. Y. Recorder.

RAIN MADE TO ORDER.

When, through the persistent efforts of Hon. C. B. Farwell, of Chicago, Congress was induced to appropriate a small sum of money for an experiment in rain-making in the arid regions of this country, the wits and paragraphs of the press made all manner of fun of the Illinois senator. Now the laugh is with that statesman and those who had faith in his projects. This was to employ dynamite or some other powerful explosive, at a high altitude, to bring together the different currents of the upper air strata. Some of these are warm and laden with moisture, while others are dry and cool. When these currents meet and mingle, the moisture in the first is condensed and falls to the earth. Such was the theory of the advocates of rain-making. Within a fortnight practical tests have been made in Texas and New Mexico, and the truth of the hypothesis established.

The experiments ordered by Congress were entrusted to the Department of Agriculture, which gave them in charge to Gen. R. G. Dyrenfurth. That gentleman selected Midland, Texas, for the first experiments.

The ranch of Nelson Morris, comprising 300,000 acres, on which no rain had fallen for six weeks, was chosen for the trial. This is a vast prairie, over which the winds are continually sweeping. There shed was built, in which the oxyhydrogen gas was made and the balloons inflated. Three classes of experiments were made. One was the explosion on the earth of giant powder and red-rock booms; the second of sending to a lofty height large cloth kites, heavily loaded with dynamite cartridges. These were exploded by an electric current sent to them through the wire used instead of a kite string. The third was by balloons charged with oxyhydrogen gas, which exploded at a height of 8,000 feet.

A copious rain followed close after the first explosion; it continued several hours over a large area. Four other experiments were made, and were attended by similar results.—

TOM DIXON ON RUSSIA AND THE JEWS.

with the pale of those Nations that profess allegiance to Jesus Christ? COMMON TIES.

Let us stop them. In the name of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, the fathers of our civilization let us remember their children. In the name of Moses and Daniel, David and Solomon, Isaiah and Ezekiel, the prophets, priests, kings and sons of universal humanity, names fragrant with the memories of every Christian mother's prayers and songs and the sacred lessons of our childhood, let us trust him as a friend, not a stranger. In the name of Jesus Christ, born of a Jew, reared on the bosom of a Jew, whose great heart beat only with the blood of a Jew, who taught a lost and barbarian world to pray "Our Father which art in heaven!" let us regard him as a brother. In the name of all that is holy and sacred and divine in the Christian civilization of the century, let us throw around these weary, homesick exiles the mantle of fraternal love!

LOVE MAKING--SOME ADVICE TO SEXES.

Charlotte, April 18, 1891.

The man who reaches the age of twenty-five without having talked love to at least a dozen women, is but rarely found; for modern man is born to love making. "As the sparks fly upward"—else he has it thrust upon him.

In "ye olden times" when the object of courtesy was matrimony, youths were less given to love making, but in these degenerate times, the chief aim of both man and woman, seems to be the prevention of ennuie; and since the old story is more widely known than any other theme for conversation, less exertion is required to discuss it, and so it is that men make love simply "pour passer les temps."

Women are largely to blame as they can always control conversation—and men, when they wish, and it is only when wit and wisdom lag, that personalities, (always dangerous) are allowed.

The woman who is a universal favorite and who is generally conceded to be entertaining, has other sources of attraction, than ears to hear, and eyes to encourage, meaningless recitals of love.

We advocate friendship between men and women, and regret that the growing tendency to "make love," almost renders a genuine Platonic affection impossible.

We fail to see that a man is any more justified in telling his friend he is in love with her than telling any other untruth, and such indiscretion on his part is sure to cause a breach in the friendship.

And if there is mutual sympathy, confidence, congeniality and loyal esteem, does it not appear foolish and murderous, to destroy it all by falling into temporary and imaginary sentimentalism? It is but a delicate line, we know, that divides friendship from love, and even the most wary are often obliged to "think twice before they speak once."

Tennyson who wrote so much about the tender passion said "I know not if I know what true love is" and while it is unfortunate for a man to deceive himself on this point, it is doubly distressing to deceive a woman.

All love making that is not genuine should be forbidden by women, who should cultivate themselves as attractive personalities, as possible.

And no matter how powerfully they may be swayed by flirtatious impulses, let them once get the mastery over sentimental tendencies, and victory is theirs.

Men will soon learn that sincerity is demanded, and who can doubt but they will strive to be more sincere? We make bold to advise the sterner sex a little, and remind them that their minds will bear more culture, and their passions for "idle love making," closer curbing.

When friendship exists, value it too highly, to crush and end it by thoughtless and sincere protestations of love. Perhaps we may be "old time" in our views of that feelings and sensations, but we have sometimes thought of the possibility of having to render on account for our stewardship over our feelings, as well as our talents, and how few of us but would be punished for negligence.

We believe in "love without dissimulation," and trust that custom prompted by good sense, will banish the universal and meaningless love making that so entirely demoralizes friendship and disturbs intercourse between man and woman.

In conclusion we drop a tear for those unfortunate victims who have "love making" thrust upon them.—Mecklenburg Times.

The national debt has increased notwithstanding the vast sums that have been paid as principal, interest and premium. A careful and thorough analysis of the following statement and table is requested of the readers:

Amount of National Debt in 1786	Amount of National Debt in 1866	Amount of National Debt in 1896
